Jesus of History Christ of Faith - Chapter 1: Who is Jesus?

In essay form, write ~500 word answers to two (2) of the following questions:

Choose either question 1 or question 2.

1. Write a page defending this position: Jesus of History and Christ of Faith are the same person.
2. Christians believe that God is the ultimate author of the Scriptures. A friend of yours says that means that God dictated every word of the Bible. Explain the Catholic Christian perspective on how God authored the Scriptures and how reading the Scriptures might differ from reading historical or newspaper accounts.

Choose either question 3 or question 4.

3. A new school term is an excellent time for setting goals. Using your St. Joseph’s planner as a template set at least two term goals for yourself and share them in a brief outline to the instructor.
4. Design and make a poster (minimum ½ sheet of Bristol board - maximum 1 sheet) that informs Bible readers on how to “read” the Bible. Use terms such as Historical Truth, Symbolic Truth, Scientific Truth and Religious Truth.
