Jesus of History Christ of Faith - Chapter 4: Daily Life in Jesus' Time

In essay form, use your text and personal insight to answer as completely as possible the following questions:

1. Girls in ancient Jewish society often married right after puberty, that is, at about age thirteen. What would have been the pros and cons of this practice? What did such early marriage imply for the life of a woman?
2. What were the rights and responsibilities of children in Jewish society? Do you think that childhood was an enjoyable time in those days? Explain.
3. Should your parents have the right to decide on or greatly influence you regarding what school you attend? Who your friends are? Who you will marry? How might your responses differ from those that would have been given by the young people of Jesus' day?
4. If Jesus were to come among us today to evaluate the family life of the Canadian people, what do you think his chief concerns and criticisms would be? How would people react to his concerns and criticisms?
